Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, tourism is [illegible] South Dakota's economy; and

WHEREAS, tourism contributes to the economy of this state; and

WHEREAS, tourism ranks as the state's number [illegible] industry; and

WHEREAS, tourism provides jobs for some 25,000 workers in South Dakota, with employment for more students and unskilled labor than any other industry in the state; and

WHEREAS, tourism generates revenues in the amount of $520 million annually in South Dakota; and

WHEREAS, an average tourist for a passenger generates $3,000 per day in the United States; and

WHEREAS, total expenditures for United States meetings, tours, corporate and association functions amount to an annual rate of $34 billion;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of May 17-23, 1987,

TOURISM WEEK

in South Dakota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Governor's Seal of the State of South Dakota, in and for the Capital City, this Twenty-third Day of April, in the Year of Our Lord Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-seven.

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE